

RAGC Registration Information

The Rochester Area Girls Choir is a non-profit organization that was created in 1978 by Diane Toogood and her late husband, Roger, to carry out the ideals listed in our mission statement. Diane is a keyboardist, a freelance performer, a teacher, a vocalist, and a trainer of musicians of all ages.

Lorie Leske joins Diane in directing the RAGC. Lorie is a director and vocalist with 13 years experience as a director and 23 years as a vocalist. Lorie has a passion for music and loves working with young people of all ages.

Our Mission:

- To promote the love of singing, music, and the abilities of young girls to cooperate and work together in a group.
- To help the girls learn more about the Rochester community while singing at area churches, conventions, community functions, and senior citizen groups.

To learn a variety of contemporary, sacred, folk, popular, and classical music.
